

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS

POST-DOCTORAL TRAINING IN GLOBAL BIOETHICS

Fogarty African Bioethics Consortium

Post-Doctoral Fellowship

Fellowship applications are sought from qualified individuals for fully-funded, long-term (18 month), post-doctoral training in global bioethics and international research ethics. Training activities will take place at Johns Hopkins University (JHU) in Baltimore, Maryland, USA and at Fogarty African Bioethics Consortium (FABC) member-institutions in Uganda, Botswana, or Zambia.

PROGRAM COMPONENTS

The program includes: in-depth bioethics training at JHU, independent research in one's home country, and a scholarly exchange (placement) at a different FABC member-institution in Africa

SELECTION CRITERIA

- Currently staff, faculty, or fellow at MakCHS, UB or UNZA
- Previously completed doctoral-level training
- Significant prior experience with research ethics/bioethics
- Capacity to lead future ethics-related research, teaching, and service
- Strong institutional and professional support
- Able to commit to the entire 18-month program

FOR ADDITIONAL INFORMATION AND APPLICATION MATERIALS

Please contact Prof. Nelson Sewankambo (sewankam@infocom.co.ug)

Application deadline: 01 December 2019

