

1. Erasmus+ Programme Department of Medical sciences - Università' degli studi di Torino- and Infectious Diseases Institute – Makerere University

Open Call under student mobility: University of Turin Infectious Disease Clinical Rotation or Laboratory Placement.

Project Description

The Research Capacity Building Unit at the Infectious Diseases Institute Makerere University is seeking 2 applicants for Infectious Disease Clinical Rotation or Laboratory Placement at Turin University.

Eligibility for Masters scholarship

Interested candidates must possess or be enrolled in a:

- 1) Medical related Masters or PhD training level
- 2) Ability to commit 3 to 6 months clinical rotation or laboratory placement at Turin University

The placement includes:

- Travel Expense
- Monthly stipend of 850 euros to cover accommodation and welfare.
- Networking opportunities with Scientists in Infectious Diseases or Clinical Pharmacology/Pharmacogenetics at Turin University

Successful candidates:

- Under this program, we hope to expose academically excellent students to the sub-specialty with the context of infectious diseases clinical and laboratory research.

Application

Highly motivated individuals planning a career in infectious disease are invited to apply for this Placement at Turin University if they;

- Have a demonstrable interest in infectious diseases research, writing, and publication
- Wish to develop particular expertise in infectious disease through the following areas: epidemiology of infectious diseases, clinical trials methodology, prevention of infection, hospital infection control, pathogenesis research, laboratory expertise in a selected area (Clinical Pharmacology/Pharmacogenetics), vaccine studies, and other topics in Infectious Diseases.
- Ability to define a clear area of interest within infectious disease
- Possess a basic understanding of infectious disease epidemiology and statistics

- Are motivated, independent, and have strong teamwork and communication skills
- Strong English language proficiency, both spoken and written (as demonstrated in writing sample)

How to apply

- Interested persons should address their applications to ananvuma@idi.co.ug . Only electronic versions will be considered.
- Please note that the subject line of the email must be stated as “Open Call: University of Turin Infectious Disease Clinical Rotation or Lab Placement”
- Applicants should submit a 1-page (maximum) motivation letter to capture Infectious diseases clinical rotation or laboratory placement expectations. Applicants should clearly state why they should be considered for this program.
- The deadline for receipt of applications is 15th May 2024.

Only shortlisted candidates will be contacted